What Henly Means To Me

I'll never forget my first trip to Henly. I was a newly married young girl from Salt Lake City, Utah - the bride of Lynn M^cCarthy. Lynn had told me many things about Henly, and I was from the city and had never been to the country, so I believed the tales - He said, "We only have one red light, and a street car, and many other things -"

When we arrived in Henly I was so surprised. What I saw was a beautiful quiet place. It had been a mild wet winter, so everything was lush and green, fields of blue-bonnetts everywhere - Then he showed me the falls - They were like Niagara Falls to me - I fell in love with the place.

Next we went to the Henly Church - another pleasant experience - the people were so nice and friendly and I feel the spirit on the Lord. I'm still very pleased and happy to be a member there.

also, I have always enjoyed the Henly Homecoming I look forward to it every year - It has gone through many changes and places, but feel we have the right one now. We have lost many loved ones, but it is still special to me -
